

Superlearning Webinars

We now know that learning can actually be better online. With just some minor guidance and encouragement people can learn complex courses and grow intellectually and vocationally. Desire' Dubounet has spent over 40 million dollars on developing a special Superlearning entertaining massive set of courses in natural and energetic medicine.

These Superlearning Webinars are made of standardized material grounded on evidence based concepts. The highest form of due diligence, professionalism and efficiency was used to make such education. This body of certified health care education uses and embraces quantum physics, Buddhist philosophy, the wisdom of the ages, and other more Newto techniques, but yet all with evidence based concepts. We must be humble and respect what we do not know but still a due diligence must be observed to find real evidence and validation for what we teach and use with patients and ourselves. We offer Training in how to help people learn how to be a health care professional or just an asset to society. Hundreds of hours of entertaining training videos and over one hundred certified medical university textbooks.

And how do you pay Desire' for doing this massive astounding humanitarian project???
Desi lets you pay in Good Karma. Yes this astounding feat of humanitarianism and grace of this enlightened intellect is going to change the world. As Karma becomes more of a way to pay, and as we broaden our science to include humility, quantum, mind power, enlightenment, energetic medicine and much more.

To do these course watch the movies and read the textbooks. Get a mentor to help guide you and encourage you. Answer the questions and let the mentor or a staff person grade your paper. If you wish to just watch and learn do so and realize there is always an unconscious contract to pay with Good Karma.

Do this for Continuing education, license, certification, or for a degree. Then you need to pay the staff for record keeping and office regulations of your license, certification, diploma or degree. To do this ask the staff for help.

So welcome to the new world of Education.
